

Steen Metz: My Story of Surviving the Holocaust

Wednesday, September 26, 7 PM

Local resident Steen Metz was only eight years old when he, along with his father and mother, was arrested and deported from Denmark to the Theresienstadt Concentration Camp. Come and hear his story at “Neighbor Nights,” a new program series at the Barrington Area Library. Register at balibrary.org/library-events.

Inspirational Rock Painting Wednesday, Oct 17, 7 PM

Enjoy a relaxing evening and get to know your Barrington neighbors as we paint decorative rocks with a variety of designs and inspirational sayings. Register. Meeting Room.

Neighbor Discussions Wednesday, Nov 14, 7 PM

Join us for an evening of lively discussion and sharing stories about one another’s cultures. Register. Meeting Room.